Presents
One Day Workshops

One-Day Workshop

Learning about bees through dance & storytelling

- A creative workshop that embodies the Primary curriculum through dance
- Delivered by professional dancers experienced in education
- Combines science, storytelling, fitness & performance skills
- Aims: build knowledge, confidence, creativity and teamwork
- Providing education through character – linking wellbeing, literacy and the arts

What pupils will learn:

- Different types of bees (worker, honeybee, buff-tailed, red mason)
- Why bees are important pollinators in our ecosystem
- The challenges bees face (pesticides, habitat loss, climate change)
- What the Waggle Dance is and how bees use it to communicate

What We Do

One-Day Workshop Plan:

- Introduction & Storytelling:

- Why bees are important, what the Waggle Dance is

- Warm Up Pulse raiser, stretches, 'copy cat' hive game

- The Waggle Dance Routine:

- 3 group scenes of freeze frames, choreography, freestyle
 - Inspired by music
 - Co-creation of a dance story: bees searching for food, planting wildflowers, waggle dancing to share news

- Performance:

- Pupils perform their Waggle Dance story for peers

- Cool Down:

- Mindful breathing, reflection, kindness to self & our planet

Impact for Pupils & Schools

Benefits for Pupils:

- Curriculum Links: Science (ecosystems, pollination), PE (dance) and Literacy (storytelling)
- Creative Expression: Dance as a storytelling tool
- Wellbeing: Mindfulness, teamwork, confidence
- Knowledge: Why bees are vital & how humans can help them

Benefits for Schools:

- Supports delivery of Primary PE and cross-curricular learning
- Engages pupils with sustainability, nature & global citizenship
- Provides a unique, memorable learning experience
- Builds resilience, creativity & education through character

Call to Action

Who We're Looking For:

- Primary schools interested in creative, curriculum-linked workshops
- Classes in Years 1–6 (KS2)
- Schools aiming to connect PE, science, and wellbeing through arts

Opportunities for Schools:

- A full-day creative learning experience led by professional dancers
- Memorable storytelling & choreography co-created with pupils
- A chance to celebrate learning with an end-of-day performance
